FAIR IS POSTPONED TO FRIDAY

CONTINUANCE CAUSED BY LIGHT SHOWER OF RAIN GOVERNOR ATKINSON TAKES A HOT SHOT AT THE DEMOCRATS

Seven Big Racing Events Are Set Over Along with Other Features.

ALL EXHIBITS TO REMAIN

Politicians' Day to Be Observed as Originally Planned with Special Contests.

Owing to a drizzling rain, which fell Thursday morning, the third day's program of the Central West Virginia Fair was postponed until Friday by President Sherman C. Denham. Everything originally scheduled for Thursday has been set over until Friday, including the races, which, by the way, are expected to be the best of the entire meeting.

Exhibitors have been required to leave all of their exhibits in the various halls at the fair until Saturday so that those who attend Friday will be enabled to see everything that has gone to make this year's exposition so grand and glorious.

Friday will be observed as Politicians' Day, a unique observance in West Virginia fair history. A dozen amusing contests have been arranged to mark this occasion. One of these is a race between mules named for Will E. Morris and A. Judson Findley. Republican and Democratic nominees for prosecuting attorney of Harrison county, an office both have held. Politicians will attend from all over West Virginia, this being a general election year and great interest being manifested among voters in the political issues of the day.

All the special attractions will be retained for Friday's meeting of the fair and there will be no change in this respect. Hoaglan's free hippodrome events will be given in addition to the contests devoted to the politicians. All the midway attractions will be running full blast and some new features never before seen here are promised.

Friday's race card will include four harness events, two running races and a five-mile motorcycle contest, as follows:

BUFFALO BILL SHOW COMING TO THIS CITY

Norwood Park is Engaged for Matinee and Night Performances September 28.

The definite announcement is made that the Buffalo Bill (himself) 101 Ranch shows will exhibit in Clarksburg, Thursday, September 28. Norwood park, the only site large enough, has been engaged for the exhibition grounds.

The amalgamation of these two notable shows was one of the amusement surprises of the season, but the result has justified the experiment. For one thing it means a larger and more representative exhibition, and at the same time it has afforded opportunities for introducing big and novel features that would otherwise be impossible. Probably the most interesting feature of the consolidation is the fact that Buffalo Bill, who is undoubtedly a character of international interest, has returned to the saddle, and actively participates in the performances. This in itself would give the combined shows distinction.

Military Spectacle.
Another fact of unusual interest is the new spectacular military offering, "Preparedness", in which the United States war department has taken such an active interest that a number of soldiers from the regular army, in order that the display may be a genuine picturization of Uncle Sam's defenders.

The purpose of the management, which has been effectively carried out under the direction of John Baker, for many years the general director of the Buffalo Bill shows, is to present a series of military maneuvers, illustrating the life of Uncle Sam's boys in khaki in peace and in war. In the camp and on the field of battle. There are, it is announced, reviews showing the various units of the military service; the life in the trenches; the perilous work in the scout and the sharpshooter; charges by cavalry and mounted infantry; artillery in action, and other spectacular incidents of an offensive and defensive army in being.

Old Time Border Warfare.
In connection with the "preparedness" display there is a visualization of the old-time border warfare, so closely identified with the career of Buffalo Bill, in which scores of Indians, led by the redoubtable old Sioux warrior, Chief Flying Hawk, and many other frontier notables participate. The life of the far West and the bonanza cattle ranges is also strenuously illustrated.

There will be two performances in this city, with a free street military and frontier pageant at 10:30. An especially interesting incidental feature of the coming of the show to this city will be a recruiting tent, where enlistments will be received for Uncle Sam's regular army.

Ad car No. 1 is in the city today, and a small army of publicity men is busy spreading the glad news.

WOMAN IS ARRESTED.

Mrs. Santi Muscio, an Italian woman, was arrested Wednesday night at her home at Northview by county officers under a charge of selling whiskey there and was taken to jail, but she furnished bond before Magistrate T. G. Nicewarner and was released to appear later for a trial, or a hearing. The officers seized sixty-two pint bottles of liquor at the woman's house.

Americans and Their Property Are in Danger in Greek Town Now.

FUTURE POLICY COMES UP

New Premier of Greece Will Insist That His Hands Be Free in the Crisis.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
ATHENS, Sept. 14.—The British legation Thursday informed Garrett Dropers, the American minister, that the Greeks have surrendered to the Bulgarians the last of the forts defending the seaport of Kavala, in northeastern Greece. Several of the forts were occupied sometime ago by the Bulgarians. Warships of the Entente Allies have removed 1,500 Greek soldiers to Thessalon.

Rioting at Kavala is reported and it is said houses and shops have been pillaged. A number of Americans are endangered as is also property of American tobacco companies to the amount of more than $2,000,000. No ships are permitted to remain in the harbor.

M. Dimitracopoulos has asked King Constantine to allow him forty-eight hours in which to consult his friends before deciding as to whether he will undertake the formation of a new cabinet. The former minister of justice also wishes to sound the ministers of the Entente before reaching a decision.

M. Dimitracopoulos is known to have declared that his acceptance of the premiership will only be made on the basis that he be given full power to control the national policy. He will insist that his hands must be free to take whatever steps the present crisis calls for, even to the entry of Greece into the war.

OFFENSIVE CAMPAIGN PLANNED BY GERMANS

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
LONDON, Sept. 14.—A wireless press despatch from Rome says that at the general council of the Central Powers at the headquarters of the German emperor, an offensive campaign in the Balkans was mapped out and that Germany will send 200,000 men and Austria 100,000 for this purpose.

FRENCH REPULSE GERMAN ATTACKS

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
PARIS, Sept. 14.—The Germans made vigorous efforts last night to drive the French from territory captured recently on the Somme and Verdun fronts. The war office today announced the repulse of several assaults north and south of the Somme and east of the Meuse at Vaux-Chapelle wood.

RAYMOND IS BILLY SUNDAY OF BUSINESS

Declares a Harrisburg, Pa., Newspaper in Reference to Man to Speak Here.

The Harrisburg, Pa., Patriot says of Frank Jewel Raymond, of East Orange, N. J., who will speak here next Monday and Tuesday nights:

With a good hard punch, Frank Jewel Raymond, famous for his ability to rejuvenate business, gave business men and their employees a timely talk last night. Mr. Raymond is a business evangelist who preaches success. He made a convert of every single one of the 1,200 men and women who packed the huge auditorium of the Technical high school to overflowing.

From his steady flow of forceful epigrams and his ready stock of anecdotes and experience that "hit the spot" Mr. Raymond might easily be styled the Billy Sunday of the business world. He spoke exactly sixty-three minutes, three minutes over the hour limit he set at the start, and every second was a treat for every man and woman who heard him. People in all walks of life from the office boy to the successful manager attended.

JAILED FOR HEARING.

Roy Sandy is a prisoner in the county jail awaiting a hearing before Magistrate Jackson V. Carter on a charge of violating the prohibition law. Sandy was arrested on the fair grounds Wednesday afternoon by J. H. Tenney, deputy prohibition commissioner. He will be given a hearing in a day or two.

Judge Ira E. Robinson, Republican Nominee for Governor.

ROBINSON COMPLETES SWING AROUND CIRCLE

Republican Gubernatorial Nominee Gets Enthusiastic Receptions Everywhere.

Judge Ira E. Robinson, of Grafton, Republican nominee for governor, has concluded his preliminary "swing around the circle" and will arrive in this city on train No. 12 Thursday evening to visit at the party's state headquarters. Judge Robinson's next important speech will be delivered at Morgantown Monday night when he will attend a political rally, at which United States Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, will be the principal speaker.

Officials at state headquarters are very much gratified over the cordial reception Judge Robinson has received in the southern end of the state where he has been the last week. They have kept in close touch with the situation and say that it could not be better.

Judge Robinson got one of the most cordial receptions of his whole trip in Raleigh county, the home of Attorney General A. A. Lilly, who was his opponent in the primaries, but who has now declared that he will support the nominee and the rest of the ticket.

The nominee spoke at Beckley Monday afternoon and at McAlpin the same evening. At both places he was greeted by tremendous crowds.

Tuesday the nominee visited Princeton, Mercer county, and a large crowd met him at the train. He was escorted to the court house where he held a public reception, meeting hundreds of the voters. Reports to headquarters here are that he made a fine impression. A cordial and enthusiastic reception was given Judge Robinson in Bluefield, where he spent Wednesday. The crowds in all the places visited were enthusiastic.

The nominee's charge that John J. Cornwell, his opponent, was the candidate of "Boss" Watson and other financial barons, met with a noble response in every section. The Watson stamp on Cornwell is too apparent, no matter how many times the Democratic nominee may deny its presence. It is hardly probable, however, that he will even deny it. The voters know that it is there and will not accept Cornwell.

BISHOP HAMILTON TO LECTURE HERE

As a Part of Dedicatory Services at the Stealey Heights Methodist Church.

Dr. Franklin Hamilton, bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church, whose residential area includes Clarksburg, will lecture at the Stealey Heights Methodist Episcopal church Friday night, as a part of the dedicatory exercises leading up to the dedication of the church Sunday.

INSERT CUT
Bishop Hamilton is a son of the Rev. W. C. P. Hamilton and a brother of Bishop John W. Hamilton. He is a graduate of the Boston Latin school, Harvard University (1887), and the Boston University School of Theology, (1892). He spent nearly three years at Berlin University and in Paris. He was pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, Boston, for some time, from which position he was elected May, 1907, to the chancellorship of the American University at Washington, D. C. In 1904 Dr. Hamilton, with his family, made a tour of the world, spending much of the time in the far East where he studied native religions and Christian missions.

From his nine years' experience as university president he was elected May 19, 1916, bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church at Saratoga Springs. He is now located in Bishop Frank Hamilton.

Pittsburg. He comes to the people of Clarksburg Friday for the first time in his official capacity. His high culture and broad Christian spirit assure him a hearty welcome and the making of many lasting friends. From his many subjects he will bring the people here a message of great value and inspiration.

Old War Horse of Republicanism Will Take the Stump for the Ticket.

SAYS HUGHES IS A WINNER

Cannot Be Held Responsible for Decision in the Virginia Debt Case.

Judge George W. Atkinson, of Charleston, one of the old war horses of Republicanism, who ranks second only to United States Senator Nathan Goff as a candidate for the title of "West Virginia's grand old man," is going on the stump. Official announcement to this effect was made at Republican state headquarters here Thursday.

Judge Atkinson's itinerary has not yet been arranged by Morgan Owen, director of the speakers' bureau, but it will probably include speeches in most of the larger cities of the state.

The judge, who is a former governor of the state and who, up until a few months ago, was on the bench of the United States court of claims, paid a visit to state headquarters on Thursday morning and was immediately surrounded by officials who pleaded with him to make a few speeches for the party. Although the judge has been quite ill for the last few months with rheumatism and is not yet entirely recovered, he promised to take the stump and do what he could for the ticket which will be considerable. The judge arrived in the city early on Tuesday evening, and will return there in a day or two.

Judge Atkinson was "hot under the collar" over the Democratic attempts to make political capital out of Justice Hughes's opinion in the Virginia debt case. He was also optimistic over the prospects for Republican success.

"I find no opposition at all to Judge Hughes," he said. "I think he will be elected. I have made up my mind. I know that he will be elected."

"I see the Democratic leaders in the state are charging that Judge Hughes is responsible for the verdict against West Virginia in the Virginia debt case. This is an outrage. There are nine judges on the supreme court bench and all concurred in the opinion on the case."

"If any controversy should arise the blame should be charged to Chief Justice Fuller, a Democrat, who, before his death, took jurisdiction of the case. Our West Virginia people do not believe that the suit was a suit of the state of Virginia against the state of West Virginia, because the state of Virginia did not own one cent's worth of the bonds, for which the suit was brought, and yet Chief Justice Fuller, endorsed by the whole supreme court, rendered an opinion that the supreme court had jurisdiction in the case. If any judge of that court is to be censured, it should be Fuller and not Hughes, who wrote the final opinion in the case. In every instance the court was unanimous and one judge cannot be held responsible for preparing the opinion of the court."

"I do not believe the people of our state can be induced to hold one judge responsible for the act of eight associates."

"To use Justice Hughes's opinion against him is unjust, unfair, and borders on dishonesty." It is simply a case of a drowning man catching at a straw.

"West Virginia is a solid Republican state and will most surely cast its electoral vote for Hughes and Fairbanks."

"The result of the Maine election shows which way the wind blows. Champ Clark gave out an honest opinion when he said: 'We (the Democrats) got licked in the state of Maine.'"

"West Virginia is a protective tariff state and whatever the Democrats may say about it, the tariff is the paramount issue in this campaign. It requires about $2,000,000 a day to pay the running expenses of our government and the Republican party has always raised the necessary funds for government purposes mainly from tariff duties and has never favored direct taxation. The Democratic idea is just the reverse of this policy; consequently the Republican policy will be re-instated, beyond question, at the approaching election. I think West Virginia will roll up its usual majority for the whole ticket. Political conditions look mighty good to me."

NO OFFERS

Of Private Plants Are Made and Probably None Will Be Made.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—The government will construct its own armor plate factory in the opinion of naval officers. When hearings on the question of the selection of a site for the proposed $11,000,000 armor plant were resumed at the navy department Thursday no offers for the sale of private plants had been made and it was believed that none would be made.

Additional offers of sites were made before Secretary Daniels and other naval officials Thursday. Advantages of Rhode Island cities were heard first.

SMITH DIRECTS PUBLICITY WORK

Washington Newspaperman Already on the Job at Republican State Headquarters

Charles Brooks Smith, of Washington, D. C., has been chosen as director of the publicity bureau at Republican state headquarters here, according to official announcement made by Secretary Coffman Thursday morning.

Mr. Smith, who is well known to Telegram readers, arrived in the city Wednesday night and immediately began work. Although at his desk until midnight Wednesday night, getting things in shape for a big publicity campaign, Mr. Smith was at headquarters bright and early Thursday morning.

Although a West Virginian by birth, Mr. Smith has made his home for the last several years in the national capitol, where he has served as correspondent for the Telegram and other West Virginia newspapers.

Mr. Smith is well qualified for the position, having served the party as publicity director in several campaigns, and was an active worker in others. He is a former mayor and police judge of Parkersburg, where he was born.

FOUR DEAD

And a Score of Others Narrowly Escape from Fire in Salvation Army Building.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
DETROIT, Sept. 14.—Four men are dead and a score of others narrowly escaped from a fire, which swept the Salvation Army's industrial building here early Thursday. About seventy-five persons were in the building when the fire was discovered. Most of them were on the second and third floors. One of the men who jumped from the top story may die. The property loss was nominal.

GIVE PEACE BONDS.

Resulting from an altercation last Sunday night at Union Heights, Frank and John Oliverio, residents of that place, were required to furnish bonds of $100 each to keep the peace for six months Wednesday night by Magistrate T. G. Nicewarner. They gave the bonds and were released.
